

Benefits and What You Need To Know About Employment Screening

Benefits of Employment Screening

- Advertise that criminal background checks are performed on employees, informs potential clients and employees you are taking steps to ensure a safe workforce
- Insurance provider may discount your liability insurance for conducting background checks on all of your employees

Businesses Need to Know:

- 35% of small business failures are attributed to employee-related crime
- 73% of job applications contain falsified information
- Employees steal 10 times more than shoplifters
- It is estimated that 1.7 million assaults occurred in the workplace each year
- Negligent hiring means that the employer knew or should have known that the employee was unfit for a particular job, hires him anyway, and the employee engages in an act damaging to the company
- Violence in the workplace is on the rise
- Employee fraud is one of the top reasons businesses fail
- You may be held liable for your employee's actions. KNOW WHO YOU HIRE!
- Criminals may use their employment to find their next victim
- Background checks make good business sense